

CHARITY JEWEL

The Charity Jewel is presented to those members who have completed their original membership payments and wish to continue supporting the charitable activities of the Freemasons Foundation by agreeing to make regular tax-deductible donations over a designated period.

Normally this a further commitment for a minimum of $500, although some wish to opt for a higher membership category.

The jewel can be worn with Lodge regalia, including Grand Lodge undress regalia.

Payment may be made

- (1) Single payment.
- (2) Automatic deduction from credit card.

Lodges who have completed their Fellow category contribution can apply for the pocket Charity Jewel for an extra $500 contribution. The jewel is worn by the Master in his year and then presented to the incoming Master at the Lodge Installation.
